511. After nomination, a player may transfer to another club only if:
 - a. the player's nomination is rejected under other By-Laws; or

- b. early nominations were called for and the player's team was not accepted in its nominated division; or
 - c. with the approval of the Competition Committee
512. A penalty may be imposed on any player nominating or registering with more than one club for the same competition or failing to become a bonafide club member.
513. Except as allowed in BL 605, no player shall be eligible to play before their registration has been notified as having been approved. A player's name in the current competition book or on the Squash Matrix signifies acceptance of registration and playing position. Refer BL 108, 109, 514 & 516.
514. Except as allowed in BL 605 no unregistered player shall play in any match and should a team play an unregistered player then it shall forfeit the whole match (ie, the four rubbers, 12 games, 180 points) to the opposing team but no fine will apply. Refer BL 513.
515. Deleted.
516. Clubs shall make every effort to grade teams and players in the correct order of playing merit. The correct position and grade of any player shall be as was last notified by the IDSRA Ltd Squash Matrix. Refer 108, 109 & 513.
517. After considering By-Law 253 and 516, the Competition Committee may approve:
- a.
 - i. One (1) lady player to be registered to play in a Men's Competition Team. The lady player must also be registered and play in the current Ladies Competition, except as allowed in 517 (b).
 - ii. Up to two (2) men players to be registered to play in the Ladies Division 1 or 2 competition team but only one (1) registered man player per ladies team may play in any one round. Such men players also be registered and play in the current Men's competition, except as allowed in 517(b). This is subject to the condition that in any position line, (ie, numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, etc) across all teams in the division, the player with the highest squash matrix rating for the ladies competition at the time of the nomination must be a lady. Should a nominated man player not have a current rating for the ladies competition, then, to be accepted, he must have a current squash matrix rating for the men's competition which is below that of another player who has been accepted for the same position line in the ladies competition.
 - b.
 - i. The competition Committee may allow for up to three (3) ladies to play in the Men's Competition and be exempt from 517(a) if it is considered that they are not competitive in the Ladies Competition. If a situation arises where there are four (4) or more ladies of such a standard, then none of them shall be eligible for this exemption.
 - ii. The Competition Committee may allow for up to three (3) men to play in the Ladies Competition and be exempt from 517(a) if it is considered that they are not competitive in the Men's Competition. If a situation arises where there are four (4) or more men of such a standard then none of them shall be eligible for this exemption.
 - c.
 - i. To be eligible to play in the current Men's Competition Final Series, a lady must have played a minimum of five (5) matches in the current Ladies Competition.
 - ii. To be eligible to play in the current Ladies Competition Final Series, a man must have played a minimum of five (5) matches in the current Mens Competition.
518. Subject to other By-Laws, but not after the Friday of Round Ten (10), written applications to register extra players (late registrations) may be lodged with the Competition Committee and must show details of past performance or competition and indicate the correct order of merit position in the team.
519. Deleted.

520. If a team captain withdraws then a substitute captain's name and telephone number(s) must be notified to the Registrar. The substitute captain should notify all the other team captains in the same division.

PLAYER POSITIONS, SUBSTITUTES AND FORFEITS

601. Should any dispute or matter occur pertaining to a match or competition, then the match shall be played under protest and a formal protest made as allowed. Refer BL 400 series.
602. If any team members are unable to play in any match then a substitute that has the SAME matrix or LESS from ANY team in the same club may replace the unavailable player. A player may play two rubbers in the same match providing they do not play in a position below the position they are registered. NB: This by-law applies to round matches only. There are special rules for eligibility to play in the semi-finals, etc. Refer BL 804.
603. Except as allowed in By Law 605, a player shall not play in another clubs team.
604. Should a club's lowest division team(s), either Mens or Ladies, be unable to find an eligible reserve under these by-laws for a particular match, the captain may seek prior approval from the relevant Registrar to utilise a reserve who otherwise may not strictly be eligible.
605. Any team may avoid a forfeit and fine by providing any other substitute player(s) such as those from higher teams, from other clubs or unregistered players, etc. The team's players must move up and the substitute(s) play in the lowest positions. Irrespective of the actual court scores, such substitute is to be shown on the result card as scoring zero(0) rubbers, games and points, ie; 0;0;0, whilst a legitimate opponents is to be awarded the rubber, games and points, ie 1:3:45. Refer BL 513, 514, 516, 602, 606, 608, 609 & 712.
606. Deleted.
607. Deleted.
608. Forfeits if made shall be at the lowest positions possible, eg, if the position one (1) player is unavailable then the players must move up and play positions, 1, 2, 3 and the forfeit made at position four (4), etc.
- 609.
- a. Except as allowed in By-Law 710 and in accordance with "World Squash Singles Rules", if play has commenced and a player cannot continue then the players will retain any games and points scored, no fine shall apply and the opponent is to be awarded the uncompleted rubber, games and points. If a player vomits on or fouls the court such that play cannot continue on the court, the referee should award the match to the opponent even if the sick player is able to resume play. The referee's decision on court conditions is final. Refer BL 710.
 - b. A team will score no points and be fined five dollars ($5) for each rubber it forfeits (ie, provides no player) and a team not defaulting will be awarded the rubber games and points. Refer BL 605(b)
 - c. A team is deemed to be "withdrawn" from the competition –
 - i. when a team decides not to play after the completion of any Competition Committee pre-competition meeting when that team's grading is decided. Refer BL 251.
 - ii. After eight (8) rubbers are forfeited, except non-withdrawal and continued participation may be approved with the agreement of both the Competition Committee and the teams club. BL 609(b) will still apply in either case.
 - d. A "withdrawn" team must still pay the team's registration fees plus a fine equivalent to the teams registration fee.
 - e. The Registrar will cancel all matches and competition points for and against a "withdrawn" team and notify the divisions team captains, an Official of the Club and the IDSRA Ltd Treasurer.
 - f. A "withdrawn" teams players may still play in other teams but only as allowed in other By-Laws. Refer BL 513, 514, 602, 603, 605, 710 & 712.

610. If a team fails to play in the correct approved Matrix rated order then it shall concede to the opposing team all rubbers, games and points that are played out of order. NO fine shall apply. Refer BL 516.
611. If due to unavoidable circumstances, eg, no lights, wet courts, etc. (but not due to late or unavailable players, etc.) a match or rubber(s) is/are postponed, then the home team must, within forty-eight (48) hours notify the circumstances and arrangements to complete the match to the Competition Committee. The players of either team must not be altered except with the approval of the opposing team or the Competition Committee. Refer BL 204, 609, 710 & 712.
612. The maximum number of registered players permitted in any team at any given time is six (6). However, upon request from a club, the Competition Committee may permit up to eight (8) players to be registered in the club's lowest division team(s).
613. Players must wear footwear that does not mark the court.

SCORING, REFEREEING, RESULT CARDS, ETC

701. All matches shall be played under the laws of the game as adopted by the World Squash Federation, the interpretation of which shall devolve upon the Committees.
702.
 - a. Four players from each team shall compete and each player shall play a rubber against one of the opposing team and each rubber shall be the best of five games. In each match the Number One (1) players from each team will play each other, the Number Two (2) players will play each other and so on.
 - b. At the beginning of each match, each team captain shall list the players who are to play in each team on the score sheet. No alterations to the list of players shall be made after the commencement of the match except with the opposing captains approval.
703. At the start of each match, the home team shall provide one new squash ball as specified by Council. Players may choose any other ball and an unsatisfactory ball may be replaced, however, should there be any disagreement then the specified ball shall be used. The specified ball for all divisions is a double yellow dot ball.
The ball or its package must state "Official ball of the World Squash Federation".
704. The teams shall toss and the team winning the toss has the right to decide which players shall play the first rubber and which players shall play the third rubber, and the team losing the toss shall decide which players shall play the second rubber.
705. Matches must be refereed strictly under the rules of the game and each team will supply either a marker or referee for each rubber alternately, eg, if one team marks the first rubber then that team must referee the next rubber, etc.
706. When a referee takes disciplinary action by awarding a game or rubber or by ordering a player to leave the court, then written reports by the referee and both team captains explaining the incident must be mailed to and thus postmarked or lodged with the Competition Committee within seven (7) postal working days of the incident. Refer BL 204
707. Matches set down for play on Public Holidays can be deferred by mutual agreement and must be played as soon as possible after the date on which the match was originally to be played. Arrangements for deferred matches must be made at least two (2) days prior to that on which it is to be played. Refer By-Law 712.
708. Except as allowed in other By-Laws or with the previous consent of the Competition Committee, matches must be played at the place and date as set down, otherwise those concerned may be penalised. Refer BL 105, 611, 707 & 710.
709. If play has not commenced within ten (10) minutes of the specified commencing time, the team at default shall lose the rubber. A further ten (10) minutes grace shall be allowed after each rubber for the succeeding rubber to start. If play does not commence at the expiration of such time the defaulting team shall lose that rubber also. If both teams default in entirety, the match shall be cancelled.

710. Injuries on court procedures are detailed in "World Squash Singles Rules". The following is a brief summary.
- a. Play must not continue if a wound is bleeding or uncovered.
 - b. The referee must decide if the injury is genuine and if the injury category is either (i) or (ii) or (iii) –
 - i. Self-inflicted, ie, not contributed to be the opponent. Note – this category includes the situation where the injury was a result of the injured player occupying an unnecessarily close position to the opponent. See Item (c).
 - ii. Contributed, ie, accidentally contributed to or accidentally caused by the opponent. See Item (d).
 - iii. Opponent-inflicted, ie, caused by the opponent's dangerous play or deliberate dangerous action. Note – this includes racket leaving opponent's hand and striking player. See Item (e).
 - c. If self-inflicted, the referee shall allow time to recover or if blood is visible, a total to ten minutes. If player cannot resume after the required time the referee shall award the match to the opponent.
 - d. If contributed, the referee shall allow time to recover, eg, other rubbers may go on. If the player cannot resume before the end of court time, the referee shall, as soon as practical, notify the Competition Committee to decide if the rubber will continue and under what conditions. Refer BL 204, 609, 611 & 712.
 - e. If opponent-inflicted, the referee shall apply an appropriate Rule 17 penalty (ie, conduct warning to opponent or stroke or game or match to injured player) except if the injured player required time to recover the referee shall award the match to the injured player. Refer BL 204, 609 & 712.
711. For all matches played during the competition, points shall be awarded to the participating teams as follows:
- a. 6 points for a win in 3, 5 points for a win in 4, 4 points for a win in 5, 2 points for a loss in 5, 1 point for a loss in 4 and 0 points for a loss in 3.
 - b. Four (4) extra points for the winning team. To decide the winner of any match, rubbers shall first be counted, then games and finally points. In the event of a draw the four extra points for the winning team will be evenly shared.
 - c. No points are awarded by a bye in the Draw.
- 712.
- a. The home team shall post the result card in a designated box at the match venue on the programmed night of the match unless other arrangements are approved by the Competition Committee. The home club will enter the results in the Squash Matrix and forward the result card to the Matrix Administrator. If rubbers or matches are not played on the programmed night as allowed in By-Laws 105, 611, 707 & 710, then the result shall be entered on the Matrix and the result card forwarded to the Matrix Administrator as soon as possible. Refer BL 805.
 - b. Any forfeits must be shown on the result card and the card signed by each team's captain or nominee to certify as correct. Any form of falsification of the match results will incur a penalty as decided by the Competition Committee.
 - c. A substitute player's registered division and preferably their Squash Matrix rating must be recorded on the result card. Failure to do so shall incur the loss of one (1) competition point by the substitute player's team.
 - d. Except for sub-clauses (b) and (c) all other errors or omissions on the result card shall incur the loss by each team of one (1) competition point for each error or omission.
 - e. For the Final Series, the result card must be posted to the relevant Registrar or Matrix Administrator by the winning Team Captain.

SEMI-FINALS, FINALS AND GRAND FINALS

801. For all divisions:
- a. The four teams in each division with the greatest number of premiership points at the end of the home and away matches shall play Semi-Final matches, the team in the first position, ie, the Minor Premiers playing the team in the second position, with winner going into the Grand Final, the defeated team going into the Final. The second Semi-Final shall be between the teams in third and fourth positions, the winner going into the Final. The winner of the Final will proceed to the Grand Final. The winner of the Grand Final shall be the winner of the Premiership.
 - b. Teams finishing last and second last in the Competition are required to referee Semi-Finals. The losing team of the minor Semi-Final is required to referee the Final. The losing team of the Final is required to referee the Grand Final. Failure to provide at least two (2) players from the "team required" to referee (or substitute referees from the same club) will incur a $10.00 fine to each player who defaulted from the "team required" to referee. Refer BL 803 (c) & 805.
802. Any team that forfeits a match in the Final Series will be disqualified from playing any further matches in the Final Series.
- 803.
- a. In the event of two or more teams being equal of premiership points at the conclusion of the home and away matches, and it being necessary to decide which of them shall play in any Semi-Final match, such decision shall be arrived at by the ratio of number of matches won over the number of matches lost.
 - b. If this be equal, the position shall be arrived at by the ratio of rubbers won over rubbers lost, and if this be equal, by the ratio of games won over games lost.
 - c. If necessary the method in (a) and (b) will be used to determine the lower teams for refereeing. Refer BL 801 & 802.
 - d. In the event of a draw in any semi-final or final, the team higher on the premiership table will be declared the winner.
 - e. In the event of a draw in any Grand Final, both teams will be declared Premiers.
804. In addition to other By-Laws and to be eligible to play in any Semi-Final, Final or Grand Final, the player must also satisfy either sub-clause (a) or (b):
- a. The player must be one of the players in the finalist team when it was approved before Round 1 started and must have played a minimum seven (7) games for the finalist team in the present competition.
 - b. An application to play any other player must be made to the Competition Committee no less than twenty-four (24) hours before the scheduled match time. The Competition Committee may approve or deny eligibility to play and no appeal is permitted regarding the decision. Refer BL 108, 109, 204 & 254.
805. The ball, score sheet and result card are to be provided by the team finishing higher on the final points table. The result card should be signed by the referees as provided in BL's 801 or 802 and 'posted' as per BL 712. Non-attendance of referees as required in BL 801 (b) or BL 802 (b) is to be stated on the card.
806. Deleted.
